

Bob MacLean

Musical Guest

Bob is a folksinger, guitarist and song-writer. While he often does them all together, they are different things he works at.... either way...when put together, the outcome is a story.

Being authentic is a big deal for Bob. Everything he plays is a story. He works to present an honest presentation of who he is.... he plays, he writes, he sings, he tells stories about the songs and tunes, about himself, about where he comes from, about the songs/tunes and where they come from. He works to engage EVERYONE with these stories. He is also an over-the-moon lover of all things guitar and old trad songs.

Bob is always in planning mode and looking for good listening venues to present his stories ... he plans for a good time and looks to share it with others.
