

Stephen Ferraro

I Have No Business Running a Small Business

Stephen is the Owner and Head Instructor of Ferraro Karate and Martial Arts in Downtown Guelph. At the age of 9, he started Karate and has continued training for the past 31 years in Karate as well as a multitude of additional Martial Arts. As a school teacher, now in Special Education, and with degrees in English Literature, Theatre, and Education, Stephen may not have chosen the traditional path to Entrepreneurship and Business

Management but Transmissible Skills in Business can be developed anywhere including the gym, the stage, and even the classroom. Listen to Stephen's unconventional story about how he has found success as an entrepreneur while having "No Business Running a Small Business."