

Glenna Banda

A Shared Responsibility for Social Good

Glenna has over 15 years experience as a non-profit leader with a passion for working collectively to improve lives and build community.

Currently the Executive Director of United Way Guelph Wellington Dufferin, Glenna previously led Ontario's Agriculture in the Classroom organization, AgScape, and the Children's Foundation of Guelph and Wellington.

Recognized as one of Guelph's Top 40 under 40 and a Rotary Paul Harris Fellow, Glenna is also the co-founder of Ontario's longest running adventure race, the Southern Ontario Amazing Race.

Proud to be a resident of Guelph, Glenna loves spending her down-time on one of our beautiful trails or on a downtown patio.
